4863. TO CONSIDER THE OPTIONS FOR THE YOUTH CLUB BUILDING

RESOLVED to note the following:

- W Reynolds proposed the Parish Council contact DMBC Assets Department stating that in principle the Parish Council wish to take over the Youth Club building. This was seconded by J Cooke and agreed by all the Cllrs present.
- J Gibson explained that the land is owned by the Miners Welfare but the building is owned by DMBC whose Legal Department is currently looking into a lease similar to the lease with the swimming baths for a peppercorn rent.
- The Clerk to contact YLCA about the Parish Council employing staff such as Building Manager, Youth Workers, etc.
- The Clerk to contact YLCA about the setting up of a Trust for the running and management of the youth Club building and how the Parish Council would fit into that structure.

- The Clerk to search for other Town Councils and Parish Councils who may have taken on such a building.
- The Clerk to contact Dean Mangham to set up a meeting before/after the Youth Club meeting (2.30 pm on Friday 7 July 2017) for Parish Councillors to tour the building.
- J Cooke to contact Gill Fairbrother for advice on the Parish Council developing a business plan to take over the Youth Club building.
- J Cooke to collate all the costings of running the Youth Club building.
- The Clerk to contact DMBC Assets Department to put in an Expression of Interest in taking over the Youth Club building.
